11am - 1pm, Wednesday June 7, 2023 (Exhibition Hall 222 - Buckhead)

Description: Join the professional staff of the LGBTQIA Resource Center for a session on LGBTQIA Inclusive practices for academic settings. This session will provide an overview of foundational information relating to gender, assigned sex, and sexual orientation and provide practical advice for the application of inclusive practices that will enhance the learning environment for people of minoritized genders and sexualities. Inclusive practices will apply to classroom and research settings and include content relating to creating an inclusive environment and navigating bias and discrimination. .
